

Former chef alleged of bribery wanted by the ICAC

25.08.09

The District Court today (Tuesday) issued a warrant for the arrest of a former chef of a Chinese restaurant, charged by the ICAC for alleged bribery over purchases of meat and poultry from a supplier.

Au Yeung Wai-keung, 42, former supervisor of the roasted meat section of Kamboat Chinese Cuisine Company Limited, failed to meet a condition of his bail imposed by the court earlier.

Au Yeung was charged by the ICAC in June 2008 with two counts of accepting advantages from a supplier and one of conspiracy to accept advantages on behalf of another agent of a different restaurant. The alleged offences took place between March 2003 and August 2007.

He was granted cash bail of $50,000 and was ordered to report weekly to the Police. However, he failed to report to the police on August 21 and since then could not be located.

Anyone who has information on Au Yeung's whereabouts or any information that may lead to the arrest of Au Yeung is urged to contact the ICAC on its 24-hour hotline 2526 6366. Information received will be treated in the strictest confidence.
